

Kenton County Republican Women's Club Americanism Award Essay Contest

February 16, 2012

Dear Sixth Grade Social Studies Students and Faculty:

The Kenton County Republican Women's Club (KCRWC) is proud to sponsor an essay writing contest for sixth graders in Kenton County. The subject of the essay should focus on "What I Can do to Keep America Great!"

The essay should be no longer than two pages and should be typed. A panel of judges from the Kenton County Republican Women's Club will read each of the essays and judge the winner. The judging will be based on subject matter, content, style, and grammar.

The deadline for the applications is Friday, April 20th. The winner will be notified on or before May 4th.

The winner will be asked to attend the May 21st luncheon meeting of the KCRWC and will be asked to read the essay to the club members.

The winner and his or her teacher will each receive a $100.00 award.
