Message from Dan Bell:

I was recently selected as the Kentucky League of Cities "Elected Official of the Year" 1st runner-up to the Mayor of Louisville, KY. As the Elected Official of the Year Runner-up I was honored at a luncheon on October 4th during the KLC convention at the Northern Kentucky Convention Center. As runner-up, a $250.00 donation will be made in my name to a local city program or charity of my choice. In addition I have been reappointed to the KLC board of directors for another year. Some background on the KLC award. The Elected City Official of the Year Award is given by KLC to recognize a city leader whose innovation and leadership goes beyond expectation and has truly improved the community. You can also find more information @ www.klc.org.

PLEASE let us know if your email address has changed recently due to: the Time Warner Cable buyout of Insight, a work change, or just because!! We'd love to keep our records up-to-date!

Email any changes to:

publicity@kcrwc.org Thank you!

Remember that we are collecting donations for the NFRW Dictionary Project. As part of our NFRW Achievement Award status (We received a GOLD level award at the convention in Louisville!) we continue to support the Dictionary Project! The KCRWC is proud to be a part of this great project. When our order comes in, they will be donated to a Kenton County school.
