CONGRATUALATIONS TO GABRIELLE SUMME
SHE WON NKY WOMAN OF THE YEAR!

Message from President

The late actor, Robin Williams is quoted as saying, "Spring is nature's way of saying, Let's party!" I couldn't agree more because after a long winter, nature provides the music with the birds chirping and the decorations are splendid while in full bloom. I cannot think of a better time to join the "Grand Ole Party" for our third annual "Pancakes, Pickin' and Politics". This event is a joint venture between the Kenton County Republican Women's Club and the Northern Kentucky Young Republican's. We serve up some great food while promising you that you will want to stay because you never know who may show up. I can tell you that this year two, maybe three or more President's will attend as will many others who support this event.

If you liked how we "Flipped the House" during the last election cycle, come to the Edgewood Senior Center on April 22nd and see who will "Flip Your Pancakes" while the "Pickin'" is good and the "Politics" are real.

Thank you to Billie McDaniel, for chairing this event as the representative from the Kenton County Republican Women's Club for the third year in a row. Also, thanks to the sponsors, donors, all who attend, volunteers and the Northern Kentucky Young Republicans.

Hope to see you on April 22nd.

Pam Dimerman

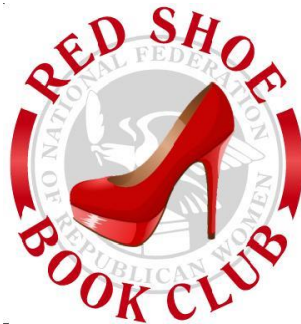

KCRWC President – 2016 & 2017

The Kenton County Republican Women's Club

Proudly Announces the Launch

Of

The Red Shoe Book Club

The NFRW (National Federation of Republican Women) has formed the Red Shoe Book Club to encourage clubs across the United States to take the opportunity to get together and share literature within our membership. They have established September as Literacy Month working in conjunction with the Barbara Bush Foundation. Clubs can select a project that is one time or on going to promote literacy. We have chosen our Red Shoe Book Club to be our ongoing Barbara Bush Literacy Project. We are very excited to be the first club in the state of Kentucky to have a Red Shoe Book Club.

Please join us and be a part of this great evening on Wednesday, May 24, 2017! The first meeting will be at the home of Stacy Tapke (2503 Legends Way). The book that we will be reading is Hillbilly Elegy by JD Vance. The Red Shoe Book Club is limited to paid KCRWC members only. Please call Shawn Baker with any questions. 859-446-8678. We would like to take reservations so we have an idea of how many to expect at our first book club meeting. Please call Pam Marcum if you plan to attend at 859-341-5718. Hope to see you there! More details to come!!
