

President's Message

Happy February!

One of our goals as a club is to get more women educated and engaged in the Republican Party. We want to empower women to get involved in the Party, elections, campaigns, and even run for office themselves. There is an old saying that Republican women are the backbone of the Party — however, I think today we can say that Republican women are more than just the backbone of the Party; we ARE the Party. The work we all do to campaign, fundraise, as well as advocate for policies that are true to our values is the key to Republican success here in Kenton County, Kentucky, and nationwide. Invigorating the next generation of Republican women is the key to our Party's future success!

Please join me by bringing one (or more) new person to the membership and networking meeting Monday February 27th. Growing our membership in the KCRWC is crucial in our mission so we can continue to do the great work we do! I challenge our current members to talk to someone new at this next meeting and get to know each other a little better. As a club we must continue to look forward, always focusing on the importance of every election. Let's work hard and make a difference together!

God Bless,

Sherry Goodridge

Feb 27th Membership Meeting

Our February membership meeting will be held at the Erlanger Library, 401 Kenton Lands Rd, in Erlanger from 6pm-8pm. The cost is $12 each. Please join us for Food, Friends & Fun as we welcome new members and recruit more women to grow this club that is so vital to our county. We need to be a strong voice not just for Republican women but for all Republicans. We want Kenton County Republican Women to be well known in our State. You will be a part of not just a local organization, but be connected at the State and National Level. You are highly encouraged to bring friends, coworkers, family and anyone you feel may be interested in joining KCRWC this year. We love our Associates so please include the men in your lives! You don't have to live in Kenton County to join as many surrounding counties do not have a Republican Women's club. Don't forget, we have a Governor to elect this year! How exciting!

Please RSVP via email: kathleenbell859@gmail.com or by phone: 901-604-6273 on or before noon Friday, Feb. 24th.
