

March

President's Message

Dear Members and Friends,

With spring on the horizon, I'm dreaming of warmer days full of sunshine, fresh air, and fun outdoor activities. It's a season of new growth and fresh ideas. Our membership mixer in February at the Kenton County Library was excellent. We enjoyed food, drinks, and fellowship. Several new members joined the club, and we are excited to get them engaged and active helping our conservative cause.

While disappointed to have to make the tough decision to cancel the pancake breakfast for March we are just getting started preparing for a successful 2023! We have many exciting meetings and events ahead! We look forward to seeing you all at our next membership meeting with our Freshman Legislators Monday evening April 24th to hear all about their first General Assembly experience.

And please be sure to join us Saturday April 22nd at the Kenton County Republican Party Spring Fling Fundraiser Luncheon to hear from Constitutional Officer and Gubernatorial Candidates and help support the county party! Personally, I'm looking forward to hearing from our Keynote Speaker Political Commentator Scott Jennings too! Get your tickets and RSVP today!

As always, thank you all for your support and I look forward to continuing a grand year.

Our April 24th meeting will begin with registration at 6:00pm in the Riedlin-Schott Room at the Kenton County Govt. Center, 1840 Simon Kenton Way, Covington, 41011. We'll hear from our new freshman legislators: Stephanie Dietz, Steve Doan & Shelley Funke—Frommeyer! Dinner will be $20.00/person and RSVP's should be made with Kathleen Bell via phone at 901-604-6273 or via email at kathleenbell859@gmail.com.

Several KCRWC club members joined our fellow Kentucky Federated Women from all over the state at our beautiful Capitol in Frankfort for Legislative Day on February 28th. We heard from members of the House, Senate, and Constitutional Office-ers. We ended the day observing the House of Representatives session. It was great to see our legislators hard at work for the people of Kenton County and the Commonwealth..

Enjoy some pictures from February 28th— KFRW Legislative Day! We had a great group from the KCRWC and hope that you can join us next year!

CELEBRATE Women's HISTORY MONTH

Established in 1960, the KCRWC has a rich history of fostering women as leaders and promoting the Republican Party. Our focus is to educate our members on issues and candidates through our monthly general meeting speakers, working on campaigns, and helping elect Republicans in our county, state, and country is what we strive for!

We are a Chartered Club of the Kentucky Federation of Republican Women and the National Federation of Republican Women; an organization that greatly expands our voice and clout on the national level.

Today, the club continues to grow with many enthusiastic and dedicated women and it is our honor to celebrate and remember the trailblazing women who came before us.
